

STINGRAYS UNIFORM POLICY

Much like any sports team that would take the field wearing their team uniform, the Stingrays expects each of its athletes to be outfitted in its teamwear. This includes, but is not limited to JAKED branded team wear, swim suits, t-shirts and swim caps.

TRAINING

- Any Stingrays Cap to be worn at all training sessions.
- Stingrays Teamwear is encouraged to be worn during training sessions & must be worn during training camps and off home-site training sessions.
- Yellow Stingrays Cap to be worn during all Open Water Sessions.

COMPETITION

- Stingrays Teamwear should be worn at all competitions.
- Please wear your Stingrays T-Shirt to all meets as below.
 - White on Day 1 & Black on Day 2
- Swim Caps:
 - If it is a Heat Declared Winner Event, then the Blue Stingrays Cap should be worn. ■ For example: HKASA, Home Meets – Blue Stingrays Cap.
 - If it is a Heat and Finals meet, then the White Stingrays Cap should be worn at Heats, and the Blue Stingrays Cap worn at Finals.
 - For example: QLD, Open Meets, Championship Meets
 - Heats – White Stingrays Cap
 - Finals – Blue Stingrays Cap
- Please wear Stingrays Attire if receiving awards on podium, talking to media or for team photographs.

RACING TECH SUITS

- At each level of competition, Stingrays has a policy governing which suits are allowable. As a guideline, tech suits should be worn at national meets (HKGSA D1+) level and beyond and for swimmers ages 12+. Coaches will give specific racing suit requirements for each swim meet.

BACKPACKS

- Swimmers at all group levels are expected to carry the Stingrays Swim Bag by Jaked when they attend swim meets, competitions, training camps, or any events at outside venues. Swimmers who go on Team Travel must also carry the Large Traveling Backpack by Jaked.
